To be successful you will have qualifications in teaching and be currently registered with Victorian Institute of Teaching (VIT) as well as:

- a track record as a proven leader with a focus on continuous improvement, lateral thinking and innovation.
- a demonstrated commitment to the fostering and promotion of the Mercy values of Compassion, Justice, Respect, Hospitality, Courage and Service across the College, consistent with the College's strategic plan, vision, mission and values.
- capacity and willingness to lead and relate with compassion, humility, empathy, grace and integrity;
- have accreditation to teach in a Catholic school (or be working towards such an accreditation)
- demonstrate understanding and knowledge of current and educational trends, issues, policies and directions;
- possess outstanding communication and interpersonal skills to building relationships with key stakeholders such as children, parents and the school community;
- demonstrate ability to effectively lead and work with multi-disciplinary teams;
- experience in developing or contributing to development of strategy, policy and implementation in individual and collective well-being;
- have excellent organisational skills, planning, analytical and data mining capabilities;

About Catherine McAuley College

Catherine McAuley College is a co-educational Year 7 to 12 Catholic secondary school and a member of the vibrant network of Mercy Education Limited, schools around Australia, Catherine McAuley College staff benefit from a professional environment, which has been cultivated over the 145 years of the school's heritage.

The Mercy values of compassion, courage, respect, justice, service and hospitality guide our way and our touchstone statement supports these values: 'inspiring members of our community to be learners impelled to thrive and serve'.

The College is situated across two campuses: St Mary's Campus, Barkly Street Bendigo (Years 10-12) and Coolock Campus, 1 St Vincent's Road, Junortoun (Years 7 – 9). The current enrolment is approximately 1500 students with a significant growth forecast and plans well underway for further exciting future developments.

The College is a reGEN school committed to promoting and adopting an integrated curriculum approach to sustainable living including respecting, conserving, and renewing our global environment.

We are dedicated to developing students who are critical and creative thinkers, with the skills to be self-motivated in the pursuit of knowledge. Our students are empowered to see themselves as positive agents of change, who are called to participate actively and ethically in society as young men and women of Mercy.

To explore what happens in our learning areas across both campuses, please visit our website, take a virtual tour or look through Open House which also includes further 3D tours .
